

Zurich, 26.05.2026

Teaching assistant sought for Quantitative Methods (Fall Semester 2026)

The Chair of Political Methodology at the Department of Political Science at the University of Zurich (www.ipz.uzh.ch) invites applications for a position as a teaching assistant (TA; akin to a tutor) in the course Quantitative Methods (623-501a; taught by Dr. Garret Binding) as of September 1, 2026.

Responsibilities

The TA will be responsible for weekly lab sessions accompanying the course Quantitative Methods in the Fall semester of 2026. The main focus of these lab sessions is a hands-on experience with RStudio by working through different empirical exercises. The TA might also assist in other teaching-related matters (such as grading homework assignments). The compensation for this position is 1'800.- CHF per semester.

Qualifications

Applicants should have a solid grasp of the statistical foundations of quantitative research, such as probability and inference, and be well-versed in RStudio. They should speak English and be enrolled as a MA student during the semester.

Starting date

The starting date for this position is September 1, 2026.

We offer

A possibility to work at one of Europe's top departments in political science; an opportunity for first-hand teaching experience; and an office space at the Department of Political Science.

Further information

Please apply through our application page: www.ipz.uzh.ch/de/ueber-uns/offene-stellen/2026-TA-Binding.html

If you are interested but would like more information before applying, please reach out to Garret at garret.binding@unibas.ch.

Closing date for applications

Review of applications will begin on July 15, 2026 and continue until the position is filled. Interviews will take place in July (and can be done virtually, if need be).